

Somerset Savings Names Neil Viotto As Senior Mortgage Lending Officer

Bound Brook, NJ—November 28, 2022—Somerset Savings announced that Neil Viotto has joined the Bank as Senior Vice President, Senior Mortgage Lending Officer.

Viotto joins Somerset Savings as David Wigg, Senior Vice President, and current loan division manager, has announced his retirement at year-end after 39 years with the Bank.

Most recently, Viotto was the Director of Residential and Consumer Lending at Peapack-Gladstone Bank where he was responsible for both residential and consumer lending, management of the loan origination team, and new business development and underwriting. He has 30 years of experience in the mortgage industry, working on both the retail and wholesale sides of the business.

#