JESSIE COLES PROMOTED TO VICE PRESIDENT/CONTROLLER

ELMER, NJ - The First National Bank of Elmer is pleased to announce the promotion of Jessie Coles to Vice President/Controller.

Jessie originally joined The First National Bank of Elmer in November 2002 as a teller. From there she was promoted to Staff Accountant, followed by Assistant Controller. In her new role, she will continue to assist the Financial Officer in the daily operations of the Finance Department while expanding her role in other aspects of the Department.

Cindy Volk, Senior Vice President/Financial Officer, said, "We are excited to promote a long term, dedicated employee like Jessie. We look forward to her continued success and are confident that she will continue to excel in her new position."

The First National Bank of Elmer is a national community bank headquartered in Elmer, New Jersey, since 1903 with six branch office locations serving Salem, Cumberland, and Gloucester County. More information about The First National Bank of Elmer is available online at www.elmerbank.com.
